I was a Program Manager for the Tennessee Do-Not-Call and Do-Not-Fax programs from their inception and assisted the Federal Trade Commission and Federal Communications Commission in the establishment of the National Do-Not-Call program. I’m now serving as the Compliance Officer for the Driver Services Division of the Department of Safety and Homeland Security

During our Class elections, I was elected as the Class Reporter. I would like to continue to utilize my servitude leadership style and skills in serving on the Steering Committee and with the Alumni’s various programs. I would also like to see an increase in Alumni participation through the promotion of continued personal growth and professionalism that the TGMI Alumni represents.”
